BAKER GLEE CLUB
MAKES BIG HIT
AT ELKS' THEATRE

Superintendent S. E. Busser of the Santa Fe reading rooms scored another success last evening when he presented at the Elks' theater hours the Glee Club of the Baker University of Kansas.

The director and manager, Marvin D. Geere, told the audience not to expect too much, as he had had a "batch" of ordinary songs, but when he was through handled the difficult choruses proved conclusively that he needed no apology as entertainment.

Charles Jones, the reader, who by one way lived in Albuquerque several years ago, announced that the high school was enthusiastically received after his first number. He went from the sublime to the ridiculous with the ease of a professional. His rendition of the "Old Tobacco Chewer" was certainly a clever piece of acting. Taking it all in all the Baker university boys were there with the

INSURANCE CASE MAY GO TO JURY TODAY

Lawyers connected with the suit instituted by Francisco Lucero y Montoya against the Royal Insurance company for the full payment of a fire insurance policy for $5,000, which went on trial in the state court last week, expect that the case will go to the jury this afternoon.

The defense was not as long drawn out as the plaintiff's side, in which a dozen or more witnesses were summoned.

EUROPE AMUSED BY THE TROUBLES OF WILLIAM OF EED

Unable to Negotiate Loan of $750 to Pay for Removal of His Personal Effects to Ancestral Palace.

(By the Associated Press).
Berlin, April 1.—Europe has found amusement in the unusual embarrassment of Prince William of Wied, who was forced to arrange all the preliminaries of his ascent to the throne of Albania on credit.

Not until the last moment before his departure from Berlin did the young monarch-elect in getting an $1,000,000 loan which he had arranged to the power. The result was that he was unable to meet the bill of $750 for moving his personal effects and furniture to the palace at Durazzo. The shipment was entrusted to the German agent of the Austrian firm Edelweiss, who finally obtained orders from Vienna to send him a bill for transportation to the Austria foreign office.

Austria paid the railway fares and hotel bills of the new monarch on his round of state visits to the capitals of Europe and furnished the steamer to take him to Durazzo. The gorgeous uniform which the prince designed for the Austrian army was turned out by the Austrian contractors and contract and they certainly could not afford to throw any of those men overboard just at this time. It is therefore highly improbable that they would be willing to offer any very high salaries to let more players who were not considered good enough for major league clubs.

In 1911 the Detroit Tigers were pennant contenders. With everything looking rosy in 1912, the Detroit club suddenly collapsed and finished in sixth place. In the latter part of 1912 and all of 1913 Jennings explored and repaired and the result practically an entirely new team.

Of the 28 players listed under "Detroit" for 1911, eight are now on the payroll. Of these, Cave and Baumann are comebacks from the minors. Cobb, Bush, Crawford, Gainor, Marquis and Stanage are all that are left of the lot.

White Sox and Giants were playing on the field at Cairo, Egypt. In a special box above them sat the King of Egypt, surrounded by his brilliant retinue. Dutch Schaefer, "who is this—say," remarked Fred Merkle. "He's king of Egypt." "He can't be king," protested Schaefer. "The king of England is king." "Well," explained Merkle, "he's king just like Bill Dahmen was manager of the Brooklyn club."

With the loss of both Oakes and Evans by desertion to the Federals, the outfield situation on the St. Louis Cardinals becomes acute and the recruits necessarily get extra attention.

One of the best looking youngsters is Charles Miller. He is exceptionally fast and if he can hit seems likely to win a regular berth.

Good judges of Balkan conditions here assign an existence of not more than ten years to the new kingdom, and the German foreign office is convinced that William may even lose his life within that period.

Oil Argument Continues.
Washington, April 1.—Consel for California oil producers on the public domain continued argument today before the house lands committee, contending that the proposed federal leasing system of oil and other public lands without preferential rights to those oil companies should be abandoned and that the revenue laws when finally applied was sufficient. A. E. Bolton of San Francisco said that his claimants could not sell oil in the standard oil company until they had cleared their lands.

Douglas' Philadelphia team is so badly wrecked that the loss of Doolan merely adds one more chapter of woes. Bill Doorn is fairly cheerful and expects to show in a recruit to take his place. His pitching troubles so far notwithstanding, he avoided infiel that he is not wearing worts.

The American league is far less hit than the National. In fact, only the loss of Chapman, whose broken leg wrecks the Naps' pennant hopes, will be much felt. In Alison, however, Chevman has a capable man who has and can substitute anywhere in the infiel, and several rookies are making a strong bid.

Wagner's going has been foreseen by Boston for some time. Wise old player, he has made his head work for him and won the title of hero for his team, but the time of his retirement, this year, is reported to be in bad shape, rheumatism having gotten the upper hand. Stahl foresees Wagner's going, and Harold Janvrin has been training for the job. Still Wagner's absence is going to be felt.

Wagner was, with the exception of Doolan, the weakest hitting of the departing shortstops, who all made good records last year. Their batting and fielding averages follow:

Name.	R. A.	F. A.
Tinker.	.317	.968
Hausner.	.289	.956
Chapman.	.253	.939
Bridwell.	.249	.948
Wagner.	.246	.965
Doolan.	.218	.942

Walter Johnson isn't in form yet. In a game against Catherer the other day he worked three innings and only fanned five men. Someone got hit, too.

Wotzsmittler. Fact that Captain Jolly well defeated Oxford in the annual eight-armed race hasn't seemed to stir the sporting fraternity.
